PECK GIVES HIS VIEWS.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE READ TO THE LEGISLATURE.

Much Attention Paid to the Bennett and the Cooper Laws—Lawmakers Take a Recess Until January 20, to Give Speaker Hogan a Chance.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 15.—[Special.]—The legislature met in joint session at 10:30 this morning, and listened to the reading of the governor's message, which he delivered in a full rich voice. He was warmly applauded when he appeared, and frequently during the delivery of his message.

Senator Green introduced a joint resolution providing for redistricting the state into congressional, senate and assembly districts, which lies over and before them. It is thought they will rearrange the state out of all semblance of recognition.

The legislature by joint resolution adjourned until Tuesday, January 20, to permit Speaker Hogan to select his committee and to allow the members a respite after their arduous duties of organization.

A synopsis of the governor's message furnishes much interesting reading. It is as follows:

The governor begins by congratulating the state on the completion of another biennial period, and greets the legislature with the hope that its work may be done well and for the benefit of the whole people. He calls attention to the election of a United States Senator at this session, and asks the selection of a man to represent the state in the upper house who shall be an honor to the commonwealth. He takes up three matters of importance and discusses them at length—the Bennett law, the State-Treasury matter and the Cooper law.

The Bennett law is spoken of as the "compulsory education law, passed at the last session of the legislature." The governor attacks it as interfering with religious practices, and deems it unwarranted by the condition of the children in the state. He believes Wisconsin parents are not unmindful of the duty they owe their offspring, and he recommends the unconditional repeal of the law. The governor treats of the law as an infringement of parental rights, and says its repeal would be in the interests of harmony and prevent what might lead to the persecution of our foreign population.

The treasury matter is carefully reviewed. The governor comments in severe terms upon the practice of State Treasurers wherein they have loaned out the state's money and put the interest received from such deposits into their own pockets. He asks the legislature to take some law by which this money may be placed in banks within the state, subject to the call of the State Treasurer, such banks to be designated as "special State depositories," and to give sufficient security for the return of the funds.

The Cooper law is praised as a wise measure, which will prove more effective in its scope if amendments are made which will secure three things:

1. The removal of the constitutional objection caused by making physical disability alone the privilege of having assistance at the polls, thus disfranchising many voters who can not read or write, but for a liberal interpretation to be ordered by State officers to get around this objection.

2. The provision whereby greater security of the ballot can be obtained after the returns are made to the county clerks.

3. The provision for a more evenly divided partisan representation among the election of officers, with a view to preventing any possible fraud which might occur by reason of officers being all of one party in election precincts.

The message takes up the reports of the various State officers, comments favorably upon the condition of the state, and the progress that has been made by the people, the prosperity of the last two years; asks the liberal support of the State militia and State educational institutions, including the State university. The support of the State in agricultural matters is asked.

INDIANS WANT TO MAKE TERMS.

Several Hostile Chiefs in Conference With Gen. Miles.

PINE RIDGE, S. D., Jan. 15.—Wednesday morning Little Hawk, Little Hawk, Crow Dog and Old Calico came in from the hostile camp to talk with General Miles. The council progressed satisfactorily. Colonel Corbin announced that the chiefs have assented to the surrender of their arms and that the latter would probably be brought in to-day and tagged.

Wednesday afternoon a second delegation of hostile chiefs arrived from the camp. It comprised Two Strike, Kicking Bear, Lance High Hawk and Eagle Pipe. They had a talk with General Miles, and the same subjects were considered as at the morning session. It was agreed that the hostiles would leave their present camp and pitch their tepees on the west side of White Clay creek, immediately opposite and less than half a mile from the agency buildings. It was also decided that the Indians would surrender their arms to the respective chiefs and that the weapons would be turned over to Agent Pierce, the latter to receipt for them, placing the name of each man upon his gun. The weapons would then be sold and the proceeds returned to the Indians. It was also decided that the chiefs would attempt to control their young men, and failing in this that they would themselves arrest those who refused to act as good Indians and turn them over to the agent. General Miles was pleased with the friendly disposition manifested by the chiefs and proposed to allow them several days in which to receive their promises. As an evidence of his good will the General has sent to the hostiles several thousand pounds of flour and sugar. The General also considered with them several of the important contracts which the Indians claim have been violated, and guaranteed that in future those contracts would be complied with to the letter.

At the conference the Indians demanded the abolition of Rosebud agency and the establishment of one more at Pine Ridge. The reason they advanced for this radical move was the fact that the Indians were continually moving from one agency to the other, contrasting the methods of each and longing for the comforts of Pine Ridge as compared with the many disadvantages which they claimed to have experienced at Rosebud. This proposition General Miles promised to consider. General Miles demanded the surrender of the young men who had killed Lieutenant Casey, and they promised to accede to the demand.

The train which arrived here Wednesday forenoon from General Brooke's camp for supplies passed the hostile camp without molestation.

Short Bull was missed from both detachments of chiefs Wednesday. His absence was explained by the fact that so many wild young men desired to accompany him to the agency that he deemed it policy to remain at home.

EUROPE'S HARD WINTER.

Navigation on Several Rivers Rendered Hazardous by Ice-Floes—Many Wrecks Reported.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Severe storms are reported to be raging in the north. Advice from Berlin goes to the effect that the Elbe is full of immense ice-floes and that navigation in the river is still rendered very dangerous by the huge masses of floating ice. The hulls of several ships have been crushed in. Eighteen shipwrecks sailors whose vessels had been lost in this way have landed at Heligoland. Violent snow-storms are again prevailing throughout Austria-Hungary. A perfect blizzard raged in the city of Vienna all the afternoon. The railroads are again blocked by snow and traffic is greatly interrupted.

KOCH'S SECRET.

The Celebrated German Professor to Make Public the Ingredients Composing His Lymph.

BERLIN, Jan. 15.—It is announced that Prof. Koch will publish the ingredients which enter into the composition of his famous lymph. It is ascertained from authentic sources that it is the product of chemical processes in the body. It probably belongs to the group of albuminous compounds. The reaction which frequently follows its use, it is claimed, shows that it is not toxalbumen. In a certain degree of concentration it kills living protoplasm, thus making it necrotic, and by removing the conditions under which the bacillus can develop it kills bacteria.

WRAPPED IN FLAMES.

The Famous French Palace of Justice a Victim to the Fire King's Wrath.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—The Palace of Justice at Rouen is on fire. At last accounts a portion of the roof of the building forty yards in circumference was in a blaze. The flames were then entering downward and gaining despite the efforts of the firemen to subdue them. The lobbies of that part of the building occupied by the civil court are full of water from the firemen's lines of hose. It seems probable that the building, which was widely noted for its architectural beauty, will be totally destroyed.

The Wife of a Wisconsin Farmer Has Been Asleep for Three Weeks—Medical Men Puzzled.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Jan. 15.—Mrs. Melvin A. White, wife of a farmer of the town of Wheaton, Chippewa County, has been asleep for three weeks and all efforts to awaken her have been vain. She had been suffering from nervous prostration for some time. Several physicians from this city have been called from time to time, but the case has puzzled them all. Wednesday an electric battery was used, but without avail. The sleeping woman has received scarcely any nourishment during the period of somnolence, being forced occasionally to swallow a little milk. It is believed she can not long survive, but her husband has not yet given up hope.

Locomotive Works Burned.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 15.—The Richmond locomotive and machine works were partially destroyed by fire Wednesday night. The property destroyed included the armament of the battleship Texas now under construction at the Gosport navy yard. The loss is estimated at $125,000, fully insured. The origin of the fire is unknown.

He Killed Him in Self-Defense.

MATTON, Ill., Jan. 15.—Thomas Walker, the school teacher who fatally stabbed Thomas Nichols in a fight near Lerma Friday last, was given a preliminary hearing and discharged. It is said this Government takes prompt action at Achill Island the fearful scenes of 1846 and 1847 are likely to be reproduced.

Won't Recognize Boyd.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 15.—Notwithstanding the decision of the Supreme Court the Independents in the House stubbornly refuse to recognize Boyd as Governor and declare they will never do so until the question of citizenship is determined. It looks as if all legislation will be blocked until the contest is decided.

Many Buildings Destroyed.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 15.—A special from Grenada, Miss., says: The east side of the square on Depot and Main streets presents a gloomy picture of ashes and ruins. The fire Wednesday night, after burning seven or eight buildings on Main street and three on Depot street, was got under control. The loss was about $100,000.

DEMPSEY IS LAID LOW.

BADLY WHIPPED BY FITZSIMMONS AT NEW ORLEANS.

The Latter Wins the Middleweight Championship in Thirteen Rounds, Punishing His Antagonist Terribly.

DEMPSEY KNOCKED OUT.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 15.—Dempsey, the invincible, the Nonpareil, is no more the champion middle-weight prize-fighter of the world. Bob Fitzsimmons, the tall New Zealander, in a single fight has leaped into the front rank, gaining the title of middle-weight champion and winning $12,000. He whipped Dempsey Wednesday in thirteen rounds before 4,500 men from all parts of the country in the rooms of the Olympic Athletic Club. Dempsey was outclassed from the start. The city is ringing with Fitzsimmons' praises, and such good judges as Frank Stevenson, Jim Corbett, Billy Meyer, Parson Davies and others of like note declare him nothing short of a phenomenon, and voice the opinion that a great many of the heavy-weights have no business with him. He demonstrated his ability to the satisfaction of everybody when he defeated the acknowledged king of his class for so many years with such astounding ease. Dempsey never had the faintest glimmer of a hope of defeating the big blacksmith from the moment time was called for the third round, or the first round, either, for that matter, as Fitzsimmons forced the pace and drove his man before him with irresistible force.

Dempsey landed often enough to win a dozen fights, but the antipodean walked right over the "Nonpareil" and struck him two blows for the one received in return. His reach was something wonderful. Dempsey's seconds are censured for sending their man up like a beef to the slaughter when he had no chance of winning, but this criticism is harsh, as they were in favor of throwing up the sponge. It was Dempsey himself who insisted on fighting on, his exhibition of gameness being such that it will never be forgotten by those present. When he could scarcely raise his hands to a level with his chest, Fitzsimmons begged him to stop and said to him repeatedly: "I don't want to strike you, Jack."

Dempsey was attended by a physician in his dressing-room. He was a sorry spectacle as he lay back with closed eyes. His nose is broken, and his eyes will both be very black. The Nonpareil is heart-broken, and would say nothing.

The fight lasted forty-nine minutes. The receipts of the club were $30,000, of which $12,000 went for the purse and $8,000 for expenses.

There is talk of unfairness, but it is believed the battle was perfectly square. Alexander Brewster, the referee, is regarded as a thoroughly honest and upright man. The crowd included some of the most prominent business men, educators and city officials and sports in New Orleans.

Took the Judge's Wealth.

ATOKA, I. T., Jan. 15.—Officers have received word to be on the lookout for certain parties suspected of robbing Judge J. J. Durant, of Durant, I. T., at Paris, Tex., Monday night. The burglars effected an entrance to the judge's room through a window, who, it is hinted, has been successful in interesting British capital in the proposed trust and the formation of a syndicate with $5,000,000 capital to purchase the business.

RIN FOUND GUILTY.

Case Given to the Jury at 10 O'clock.
It Took Five Minutes Required for Conviction—Linka That Showed The Wealthy Banker was Guilty.

SHKREN, Jan. 15.—(Special.)—Leon-Perrin, the rich New London banker, convicted to-day of receiving and possession of money stolen by his son, Leon Perrin, and Baker from the Hur-Bank.

The case was given to the jury at 10 o'clock this morning and but a few minutes were required for deliberation.
Mr. Quarles had done much to convict a New London banker by his powerful argument for the state. Step by step he led the evidence which the state produced against Leonard Perrin, and point by point he connected the acts in the theory of the state until it made a chain so strong that the evidence of guilt was irresistible. He showed that he claimed was a chance that Leonard Perrin would obtain any of the National Exchange bank bills, and said that it was 1 to 100,000. He also declared that the theory upon which the attorneys for Perrin rested their case was based upon whether the bills had been in general circulation, and said that if they could not prove that these bills had been in circulation, then the defense was a corpse which would drag Perrin down to punishment for his crime, which he so richly merited.

In his speech Mr. Quarles defended Leon Thayer, and said that he had read of a Leon Thayer in the bible and that the Pharisees of that time—the Boncks and the Barbers—were about to stone her when our Saviour had said that he that was without guilt should cast the first rock, and that when all her accusers had left he had told her to go and sin no more.

When the verdict was returned this morning the court room was crowded.
Colonel Bonck at once made a motion for a stay of proceedings, and the announcement is made that the case will be carried to the supreme court.

C. M. & ST. P. OPERATORS WALK OUT.
The Threatened Strike of Telegraphers Takes Place Today.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 15.—(Special.)—The telegraphers of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad on the Council Bluffs and Racine and Northwestern division struck today. Eighteen operators stepped out on the Council Bluffs, and sixteen on the Racine division.

There has been much dissatisfaction on the part of the operators since a circular was posted cutting a part of the operators from sixty dollars to forty-five dollars a month. While the order was not general, the operators whose salaries had been cut, and the members of the Brotherhood, petitioned, but the officers of the road held that there had not been their wages cut had no cause for dissatisfaction. The strike was the result.

[Janesville will not be affected by the strike as no salaries have been cut on the Mineral Point division.]

THEY PLAN FOR A SUGAR MILL.

Stock County Farmers Investigate the Beet Growing Industry.

Stock county farmers have been investigating the beet sugar industry as suggested in the Gazette some time ago.
They have found that in the old country refineries, costing in the neighborhood of $100,000, pay the best returns on the money invested. Experiments made with the soil also goes to show that beetgrowing can be carried on in Rock county very profitably. A Nebraska farmer, who was formerly owner of a Rock county farm, writes that he is raising sugar beets on soil that is similar in every way to that which he cultivated in the town of Center.
No chemical analysis has yet been made, but even an analysis would be less satisfactory than experiments.

It will be possible at small expense to have Rock county sugar beets sent to the cost of the Nebraska mills for trial. If the test prove satisfactory (there will be little trouble in raising enough money to build and equip a mill large enough for all practical purposes).

OF COURSE ITS GOOD STEEL.

A Critical Small Boy Discusses The Gazette Premium Skate.

"Dere aint no talkin'," remarked a small boy to a companion, as they were putting on their skates at "gas pond" last evening. "De skates was you get at de Gazette office or de best dere is I know, beacuz I had another kind and dey was't so good. You can't bust de blades in dese. Dey's made of steel, dey is."

And the boy was right. The skate The Gazette is giving as a premium, re-made of steel, and of the best kind.
Then the skate is heavily pickled-plated.
That makes a good finish.

The boys get them easily too, simply by getting five new subscribers for one month—with the pay in advance, and they own a pair of skates second to none made. The people that get The Gazette are always satisfied. Everybody makes happy—the boys, the readers and The Gazette Company.

A NEW TREASURER'S OFFICE.

Change Made by the County Board—Cutting Election Expenses.

In the county board this morning the matter of the change for printing the official ballot in the newspapers came up.
There was some discussion as to the price. Mr. McIntyre stated that, in his opinion, the charges were more than they should be, but that it was the result of having too much printing done. For this the printers were not to blame. He thought that there were too many tickets printed.

Twenty-five dollars was appropriated to Patrick McGraw, of the town of Felton, to contribute to his support.

SUPERVISOR OROSBY STATED THAT

There had been some talk of changing the circuit court chamber to the room now used by the county treasurer. Judge Bennett was present and said:

"A large portion of the court business can be tried in chamber without heating the court room. I have held court in my room whenever practicable, and save one-half of the cost of heating. I frequently have cases with twenty witnesses that I have tried in my room which is much too small. Mr. Burdick is willing to exchange. In case the change is made, he will need a safe for his papers. The furniture can be moved, and the safe will be the only expense."

Mr. Orosby moved that the matter be referred to the building committee, who reported in favor of the change.
The treasurer was therefore authorized to buy a new safe at a cost of $200.

Mr. Merrill moved that the chairman appoint four supervisors, who, with himself, would comprise a committee to investigate the condition and report on improvements on the county buildings, and to report at the next meeting. The motion was carried, and the chairman appointed Supervisors J. W. McIntyre, John Huntley, J. W. Jones and W. H.
Johnson.

The drainage project was left to a special committee consisting of Supervisors McIntyre, Snyder and Huntley.

The motion referring to the payment for the building of the Atton bridge was amended and adopted.

A vote of thanks was tendered Chairman Kimball for the impetuous manner in which he had presided over the meeting.

MISS HAYNES SEEKS RICHARD GARDE'S MONEY.

She Says He Is Worth $10,000, But He Makes Denial, And Says He Cannot Pay the $1,624 Breach of Promise Judgment Against Him.

It's bad enough to have to sue a young man for breach of promise. When it comes to chasing him from state to state and finally arresting him in order to collect the judgment, it must be so very much worse than there is no comparison.

This is the experience Miss Mary Haynes is having with Richard Garde. Consequently M. S. Pritchard is hearing some very interesting testimony.

In the circuit court last spring Garde was defendant in a suit for breach of promise. Miss Haynes was the plaintiff and she received a judgment for $1,624 as a bail for her blighted affection. The wily Richard was not so easily disposed of, however. He at once decided that Illinois was a much better state than Wisconsin and hid himself across the border.

When Garde had any business in Wisconsin that needed his personal attention, Miss Haynes says, he came up to the night.

Whenever Ex-sheriff Babcock's fartripped overcoat was espied in the distance, he would make haste to get back to the home of his affection.

And the judgment remained unpaid.
Miss Haynes averts in her complaint that when Richard was making love to her he said he had $10,000 in hand, cold and genuine United States silver. He said that he could try a four hundred acre farm, and still have money enough left to buy chicken feed during the winter.

Mary believed him, but in the light of subsequent events, she has decided that either then or at the present time he was deceiving her. When it was the question that Court Commissioner Pritchard is to decide.

Some time ago Richard began proceedings in Lancaster county, to have himself declared bankrupt. Miss Haynes heard of it and decided to see what she could do to have the judgment paid before the proceedings were ended. She complained to Judge Pritchard that the bankruptcy proceedings were simply made to defeat her claim. A warrant was issued, and when the day for hearing testimony in the bankruptcy case came around, Sheriff Bemis, of Grant county, met Garde and brought him to Rock county. Here he has been arraigned before Commissioner Pritchard on supplimental proceedings. Miss Haynes expects to show that Garde has transferred his property to a young woman in Be-loft. She is represented by Wisans & Hyzer and W. G. Wheeler, while Garde is represented by Doos & Sutherland.

AL. STICKNEY LEAVES THE ROAD.

After Twenty-Five Years of Service, He Drops His Cap.

"Twenty-five years of constant service. It's what I take a rest."

That is what Conductor A. H. Stickney was thinking of as he punched tickets on the Fond du Lac passenger car of the Chicago & Northwestern road last evening. It was his last road, and to-day his resignation was accepted, and O. H.
Clark, of Fond du Lac, took charge of the train. Conductor Stickney is one of the oldest conductors on the road, he having been running a train for twenty-five years. Mr. Stickney will probably engage in business in this city.

No Strike in Janesville.
Janesville telegraphers on the Milwaukee & St. Paul say that the main strike of operators will not occur until to-morrow. The strike to-day was due to a mistake as to orders. Janesville men will take no part in the strike further than to refuse to fill the places of strikers in other cities.

Struck a Wagon While Coasting.
George Farmer, a fourteen-year-old boy living on North Fourth avenue, struck a farm wagon while coasting across Bluff street at Fourth avenue and was badly shaken up. That he escaped without serious injuries is almost a miracle as he was thrown directly under the feet of a team of spirited horses.

DEDICATED THE OPERA HOUSE.

Eight Hundred People Enjoy the Opening Performance.

Into a place of beauty eight hundred people made their way last evening.
Massive doors swung open before them, their feet pressed soft carpets and before their eyes were the soft colors and the bright lights of the new Myers Opera House.

In a large measure the opening was a social event. But it was more than that.
It was a season of general rejoicing.
Two years have gone by since Janesville people sat in a theater where the eye was charmed as well as the ear.

They had waited long enough so that they were appreciative. But had there been nothing of the kind to add to their pleasure what they saw must have given fervor to their praise.

The house in which they sat has been described so thoroughly in The Gazette that further word would seem almost superfluous. But still there were points that could not be seen in true proportion, except when all was completed.
These were commented on by the audience, and the comments were in the way of praise. The house is modeled after one which Mr. Cobb visited while in Paris last summer. The gallery stairs at the proscenium arch on each side and extends a long both sides and across the back of the auditorium. Balcony and gallery are entirely separate, and the sharp curve of the balcony make the rear seats as desirable as those in front. The decorative scheme followed in the house was fully described yesterday, but mention should be made of those whose efforts aided Architect Cobb and Messrs. Mitchell & Halbach in gaining the desired effect. The carpets, the upholstery and the drapery in the house were furnished jointly by Marshall Field & Co., and J.
M. Bestwick & Sons. All the painting and glazing was left to Rogers & Hutchinson, while the carpenter work was done by Wray & Blair. Edward Rathern, who had the mason work on the old opera house, had charge of the new as well, and to his credit may be placed the fact that no more solidly built theater can be found in the west.

A brief history of the building of the house was given by Architect Cobb last evening, after the handsome draw curtain, on which Al Bender's name appears, had been unveiled. Mr. Cobb was introduced by T. S. Nolan, and his remarks were well received.

The drama of the evening, "The Great Metropolis," aroused much enthusiasm.
A melodrama, replete with startling situations, it furnished an excellent vehicle for scenic effects of unusual nature. The piece will be presented again this evening, the price of seats being fixed at twenty-five, fifty and seventy-five cents and one dollar. The cast of the piece is
